

Code of Ethics for the Members

IN SPIRIT AND IN WORD, THIS CODE OF ETHICS SHALL GUIDE THE MEMBERS OF THE ATLANTIC INDIA ASSOCIATION. IT IS THE DUTY OF EACH MEMBER TO CONDUCT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE FOLLOWING PRECEPTS:

1. To uphold at all times the reputation of the Association and the dignity of the membership therein.
2. To pursue the discipline and activities in a spirit of fairness to all and shall be consistent with the high personal honor and dignity.
3. To avoid damage directly or indirectly to the reputation and honor of another member of the Association.
4. To decline connection with improper patronage which will not support the "PURPOSE" of the Association.
5. To decline financial or other compensation for the services of the Association.
6. To contribute to the advancement of the Association.
7. To consider the membership in the Association as affording a distinct opportunity to support the service of mankind.

EVERY MEMBER ABOVE SIXTEEN YEARS OF AGE SHOULD SIGN

Name	Date